

Year 6 PSHE: Citizenship—Rights, Rules and Responsibilities

Learning to Recap:

- We all belong to our school community. We have shared values.
- When we belong we feel happy and secure. If we are feeling sad or upset we can ask for help.
- We all have a network who can listen to us and help.
- We all have responsibilities which we are expected to do. We all have the responsibility to work hard and be kind. If we do not follow expectations at school then there will be consequences.
- Collaboration is working with others. It is important as it helps us get to know others better.
- The Rights of the Child lists 45 articles that each child is entitled to.
- Democracy is when people have a say in making decisions that affect how their community is run.
- Debate is a discussion based on different opinions and view points which usually end with a vote.
- Respect is to show regard and understand the importance of the feelings, wishes and rights of others.

New Knowledge and Vocabulary

British Values	Democracy and Rule of Law
School expectations	Our expectations make our responsibilities clear. There are consequences for failing to follow the expectations.
Rights of the child	United Nations Convention on the Rights of a Child contains 45 rights that all children are entitled to. Every child has rights, whatever their ethnicity, gender, religion, language, abilities or any other status.
Responsibility	The things you are expected to do. Being responsible means you do what you are meant to do.
Differences in responsibilities	People experience different responsibilities in their different communities. E.g., you may be responsible for setting the table at home but not at school.
Conflict	A disagreement between two ideas, views or opinions.
Laws in society	Laws are in place to keep society safe. The police enforce laws. Laws affect different age groups e.g., from the age of 10 you have full criminal responsibility.
Positive influence	To have a beneficial effect on others.
MPs and parliament	https://www.parliament.uk/education/teaching-resources-lesson-plans/introduction-to-parliament-ks2-video Our local MP is Jonathon Djanogly
Local councils	A group of volunteers elected by local people to make decisions about local issues such as planning applications, road works and refuse collection.
